To all at Protolabs,

I was delighted to hear about the work you are doing to manufacture valves for ventilators.

I am proud to have such an excellent engineering company in my constituency, and I am grateful to the firm for keeping hundreds of my constituents employed despite serious pressure to shed staff as business across the UK winds down for the foreseeable future.

It cannot be understated how important it has been that you have continued to support your employees with regular pay packets, ensuring that the local economy is supported and that families across Telford can rely on an income in uncertain times.

You should be proud of your contribution to the international effort to tackle coronavirus. You are all a credit to our town and stand as an excellent example of British manufacturing moving quickly to help those most in need at this difficult time.

Yours sincerely,
